It's time once again for the Armco CU Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting provides an opportunity for you to review the Credit Union's 2017 performance and to discuss with the Board of Directors any comments or questions you have.

Voting for the positions on the Board of Directors, Credit Committee and Supervisory Committee will begin at the Annual Meeting and continue the following day at the Credit Union's main office during regular business hours.

Absentee ballots will be available for those unable to vote at the meeting or Credit Union office.

Request yours from any Credit Union staff member and it will be mailed to you in March.

Please note, you must be a member to vote. If you are a joint account holder but not a member, stop by the Credit Union prior to the meeting to complete our easy membership application process. Call the Credit Union at (724) 284-2020 if you are unsure of your membership status.

Anyone interested in running for the Board of Directors, Credit Committee, or Supervisory Committee should notify Leanne Cygan, Executive Assistant, by January 31, 2018.
